9TH EDITION, 21-22 DECEMBER 2024

The 9th edition of GIVE PRINT A CHANCE takes place on SATURDAY 21st & SUNDAY 22nd DECEMBER from 10h to 20h at Print Workers Barcelona and with FREE ENTRANCE.

Give Print a Chance is a great small-format marketplace. Thus, in 2023, the total flow of attendees was aprox. 1.100 people. And in the penultimate edition (2022). After 2 years of pandemic absence, approximately 800 people.

And as usually happens in all markets among the 25 participating artists some sold a lot and others less.

We recommend that artists value above all the experience of participating in this event for lovers of screenprinting in Barcelona.

SELECTION CRITERIA

For the selection of the participating artists, in addition to the quality of their work, we will value very positively...

- In the case of local artists, the production of their work in our Studio. For trusting us and helping us keep the workshop active.
- In the case of long distance artists, the extra effort it takes for them to come to our annual event.
- The presence of artists with pieces in the catalogue of our Shop. For keeping his work with us during these last two difficult years.
- And of course to all those artists who have been part of our Academy as teachers.

We will also prioritize...

- An abundant and constant production of limited edition pieces.
- Majority presence of pieces with a format greater than or equal to A3. We especially value pieces of 40x60cm, 50x70cm or even larger.
- Technical difficulty of the catalog of candidate artists.

And we will take into consideration...

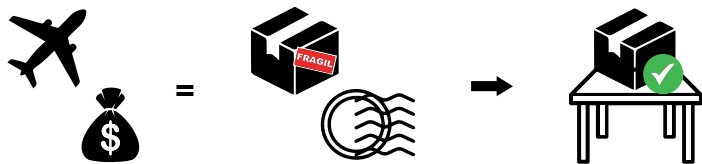

- Competitive prices that reflect the effort of the artisanal edition and the value of the limited edition.
- Artists with very low sales prices that could harm the sale to other artists will not be selected.
- We will try that the editions in risography for their lower price are a minimum part of the catalog of the selected artists.

TIPS & RECOMMENDATIONS

How to make your plane ticket cheaper...

To reduce the cost of transportation, you can send us your prints in advance and by mail to Print Workers. Prepare a good package and send it to us 2 or 3 weeks in advance in case of any unforeseen events. We will keep it in our space. And when assembly day arrives you will find it on your table.

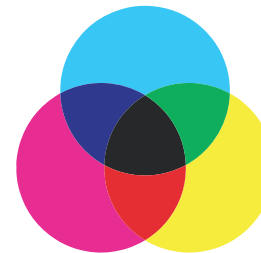

Rush Hour

We recommend spending as much time as possible at your table to increase sales possibilities. And for example, avoid taking a break during the hours when there are traditionally more people: from 12h to 13.30h approx. and from 17h to 18.30h approx. Although really the influx of public is simply unpredictable!

Finally...

We recommend wearing bright colors (like red) rather than more muted colors (like brown or gray) to attract attention. But of course there is no type of dress code and all looks are more than welcome.

Also, since it is winter and all the doors are open, it is possible that the cold is felt a little. We offer you a blanket in case you need it.

REGISTRATION & FEES

- The Give Print a Chance registration fee reflects the selection criteria mentioned above.
- The deadline for registration is 31 October. We recommend booking as far in advance as possible.
